

Foreign Policy Association

December 27, 1977
Washington

Dear Admiral Turner:

Persuant to our recent conversations with Mr. Brian Lattel, on behalf of the Foreign Policy Association and its Chairman, Ambassador Carter L. Burgess, I am pleased to invite you to address an FPA luncheon audience in New York on January 18 in the Baroque Suite of the Plaza Hotel. The schedule for the event would be - reception: 11:45 - luncheon: 12:30 - presentation 1:00 - adjournment: 2:00. Generally, the speaker gives a 30-40 minute presentation followed by answering written questions from the audience. While the choice of topics is open, you might like to discuss current developments in the U.S. intelligence community.

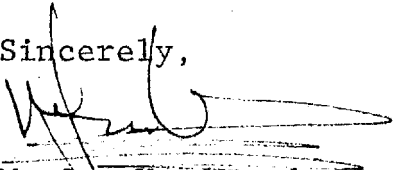

In order to insure a good audience and proper media coverage, we would appreciate receiving confirmation of your availability as soon as possible.

For your information, I am enclosing materials relating to recent FPA sessions in New York and listings of our staff and Board.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

All the best.

Sincerely,

M. Jon Vondracek
Coordinator of National Affairs
